Residence halls across the CU system opened their doors to students over the past several days, signaling the start of the fall 2024 semester.

Student move-in days at CU Denver, UCCS and CU Boulder found Lynx, Mountain Lions and Buffs joined by family, friends and members of the CU community, all lending helping hands.

President Todd Saliman visited each of the three campuses to meet and greet new students. See scenes in the photo gallery above.

Move-in is just the start of fall welcome activities across the three campuses.

At CU Denver, where classes began Monday, the CU Denver Block Party[2] is a free and public annual back-to-school event connecting the campus community with city partners. It's set for noon-3 p.m. today.

Classes begin next Monday at UCCS and CU Boulder. At UCCS, several activities are scheduled today through Saturday as part of Clyde's Kickoff[3]. CU Boulder's Fall Welcome[4] also features a full slate of events this week and next.

Discounted tickets to Buffs football season opener available to all CU system faculty, staff[6]

Excitement is steadily building for the 2024 CU Boulder football season. Those who want to see the Buffs take on North Dakota State on Aug. 29 can take advantage of a ticket deal that is exclusive to faculty and staff from every campus in the CU system.

Faculty and staff members can get $10 off tickets for seating in all levels of the bowl at Folsom Field, excluding premium seating.

Simply access the special faculty and staff promo ticket page [8]to grab your tickets.

Kickoff is scheduled for 6 p.m.

Tickets for all CU home football games, with the exception of Family Weekend vs. Cincinnati and Homecoming vs. Baylor, are on sale now[9].

CU Connections resumes weekly publication[17]

With today's issue, CU Connections resumes its regular weekly publication schedule for the 2024-25 academic year.

New editions are scheduled for publication each Thursday throughout the year. During the summer, new editions appear every other week.

Connections will not publish new issues on Nov. 28 (Thanksgiving), Dec. 26 and Jan. 2.

Deadline for submissions is noon Friday before each Thursday's publication.
